When submitting this application, please provide up to five high-resolution images of your art for print media, a photograph of yourself (the artist), and an artist statement. Our PR person may also be in contact with you if more details are needed.

If accepted, that information will be turned into a press release for potential publication in newspapers, magazines, etc. Your art should be delivered to the Center two weeks in advance of the opening. You must pick up your art within ten business days of the end of your exhibition. There will be one reception for your exhibition. If you have related class ideas, please include those in this application or the email you send.
